Crash Course: Organizational Leadership Development

April 21, 2021 11-12 PM

Want to learn best-practices for guiding your club's leaders as they attract, onboard, and train the future leadership of their organization? Join The Hatchery's Inno Agents for a crash course in Student Organization Leadership Development. The Inno Agents are students who have received training in Innovation Methodologies from The Hatchery, Emory Center for Innovation, and have worked with clubs to help them sustain themselves and grow to their maximum potential.
